TALKSTORY PRODUCTIONS

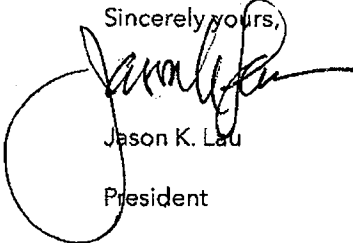

April 6, 2015

To Whom It May Concern,

I've known Walea Constantinau for over ten years. I first met her when we completed our first television series for Nickelodeon, BEYOND THE BREAK. It was a series that was shot entirely on the west side of Oahu, and employed a number of local crew members. It ran for three seasons.

Since then, Walea's position at the city has continued to be instrumental for the growth and success of TalkStory Productions. This is not to say that the State's Film Office has also been helpful to our company. Rather, Walea's position provides a different and important role for productions and companies located in Honolulu. Her focus on Honolulu has provided that much needed support to grow the local film industry. Any reduction on her budget would adversely affect local production companies, such as ourselves, as well as any film and television productions in Honolulu.

Sincerely yours,

Jason K. Lau

President
